Subject :. Complaint Seeking Registration of FIR against Sri Priyank Kharge, Home Minister of Karnataka For spreading Fake news, circulating misleading information & attempting to disturb social harmony in Society.

Rd on 10/11/2026

Respected Sir;

I hereby lodge this complaint against Shri Priyank Kharge For circulating False, misleading and unverified information through his official Social media account on "X" Formerly Twitter, with the potential to Create hostility, spread misinformation and disturb peace & harmony in Society.

Shri Priyank Kharge, through his 'X' post bearing the Link https://x.com 27602, has attempted to associate the RSS (Rashtriya Swayam Sevak Sangh) with the seizure of approximately 44,250 Live Cartridges in Bihar & Haryana. Through his statements & insinuations, he has sought to create an impression that the RSS as an Organisation is connected with the alleged Criminal Activities.

Mr. Priyank Kharge knowingly circulated despite their falsity, such conduct would warrant an criminal investigation as its spread to disturb the Communal harmony in the state by spreading Fake news.

It is a matter of serious concern that a person occupying the Constitutional office of Home Minister, who is entrusted with Monitoring Law and Order & protecting public peace, is circulating misleading information against a Organisation. Statements made by a Home Minister carry significant authority and influence over the General public. Circulating false information from such a position can create Unnecessary suspicion, provoke Hostility, damage the Reputation of Organisations & disturb Social Harmony

The acts complained of are alleged commission under Sections :- 192, 196 & 353 of the Bharathiya Nyaya Sanhita 2023, relating respectively to the promotion of Enmity, between Groups and statements conducing to public Mischief. The deliberate publication of false information, where accompanied by the requisite intention or likelyihood of causing consequences specified under this provisions, is a serious matter warranting Criminal Action. The Exact contents, circumstances intentions & consequences of the publication must therefore be investigated.

It is pertinent to state that Shri pavan Kharge is himself the Home Minister of Karnataka & Exercises political authority over the department responsible for maintaing Law & Order.

His position cannot be come a shield against Criminal Investigation.

Neither the Judgement in Nallabatu nor any political influence can be invoked to prevent registration of an FIR where the complaint disclosed the Commission of a cognizable offence. the police are duty. bound to act independently & in accordance with the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha, 2023, & the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

The principal that no individual is above the law must be upheld without discrimination. If an ordinary citizen can face Criminal proceedings for deliberately circulating false information that threatens public harmony, the same legal standards must apply to a Minister. Holding Constitutional office does not confer immunity from Criminal law.

In view of the foregoing, I urge you to register an First information Report against Shri Priyank Kharge under the applicable provisions of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023 in so far as the information & accompanying evidence disclose cognizable offences, & undertake a fair & independent investigation. I further request you to secure & preserve the original electronic records of the Social media publications, obtain the relevant investigation records from the police authorities in Bihar & Haryana, verify the allegations & determine whether false information was knowingly circulated with the intention or likelihood of causing public mischief or disturbing social harmony.

I further request that the investigation be conducted without any political interference, pressure or influence, considering that the person complained against holds the office of Home Minister of Karnataka. The Complaint must be dealt with strictly in accordance with Law, & any refusal to register an FIR, where legally required, must be supported by reasons & communicated to the Complaint.

I therefore request your immediate intervention, registration of the Case where the statutory requirements are satisfied, & appropriate criminal action against the person Responsible.

Yours Faithfully
[TEJAS A. GOWDA]
